“ I loved Alex so much! her smile could light up the room. When I was at the VA hospital she came and checked on me every other day for 7 weeks. I've done several rides with her and it was apparent that her favorite thing was to ride. She will be sorely missed! :-)

“ We are sad to hear about the loss of Alex. I attended Vilonia High School with her, and graduated together. We were planning our 40th Class reunion for next year and was in the process of contacting her. Many of her classmates have expressed to me their sorrow for her passing. She was such a joy to be around. We had lost touch after graduation but have many fond memories of our years together. It appears, by what I have read and heard, that she was loved by many and enjoyed life to the fullest. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God comfort you in this time.

“ Alex was an amazing woman and a fighter. Her strong devotion to veterans, military, family and friends was amazing. Everyone bragged about her riding and boy could she ride. She is now riding with all of the other angels that have went on before her. Alex say hello to Wanda and Blue for me. You will always be in my heart honey. I will dearly miss you

“ Alex sure was a one of a kind. She was an inspiration to everyone she touched. Alex really found her calling in what she loved most, giving back to our nations veterans. I have never seen anyone more dedicated to her fellow veteran brothers and sisters. She was my biker chick buddy, and a great friend I only wish we could have rode together more often. She will truly be missed, by more lives than we will ever know. I can still remember the time we were riding with a couple of friends and my dad, we all hung around a stop for a little too long, Alex goes into the store and gets a sticker that says.. " Are we D*ck around all day or are we gonna ride??? And hands it to me to put on her bike" she would defiantly keep you on your toes! I loved that about her. Thank you for giving me the pleasure of knowing you Alex, May God be at your destination as you take your final ride. May gods peace find the hearts of those who loved her.

“ Alex IS a true Angel, personally sent by God. Everyone that knows Alex has been touched, as she has always been such a Honorable inspiration for everyone else to follow. She was the type of person to always put Veterans and children first, as she was truly dedicated to help improve the lives of everyone she touched. The absolute only thing she ever asked for, was for everyone else to follow her lead in helping people. She is a true Humanitarian with the biggest patriotic heart I have ever had the prestigious Honor to know. She looked forward to the day of being able to ride her motorcycle hard and fast with her Dad in Heaven, they both now ride together for eternity. She was known as the Beautiful Lady in Black, with her black cat named Stewart. May Alex proudly ride on the wings of Our Lords personal Angel, for her journey to stand tall and proud for humanity in Heaven with her Dad, as she looks down to watch over all of her family and true friends. Alex's favorite sayings: "Don't spend your life wondering "IF" you're making a difference, JUST DO IT".. "I'm NOT looking down on you darling, it's just these X*#X! heels"...
