“ I'm not sure where to start with memories of Chris. We met roughly 23 years ago in institute. A small group of us would go play tennis and have family home evenings back at his apartment. I was the matron of honor at his first marriage and was there when his first two kids where born. His son, Aaron gave my daughter her first kiss in a little tikes car when they were maybe two. I was privileged to be in the temple when he married Michelle. I was there when CJ was born. There were many birthday parties and holidays spent together throughout the years. It was such an honor for me to be a part of his life, he was my brother and I will miss him but I know he is watching over his sweet family. I cherish the many memories and hear his laugh. One day I will see him again and he will say, "Whaaaaat's up?"
