

Debora "Debbie" Annette Dilbeck

July 30, 1952 - November 21, 2018

Debora "Debbie" Annette Dilbeck, 66, of Wooster passed away on Wednesday, November 21, 2018 in the arms of the people she loved at her home after a short battle with cancer. She was born on July 30, 1952 to Lavada Pauline and the late Medford Wesley Oldfield in Tulia, Texas.

Debbie is preceded in death by her beloved father (Wesley) and "favorite" son Andrew Dilbeck. She is survived by her mother, daughters, Christina Dilbeck of Mt. Vernon and Wendi Casilio (Bruce) of South Carolina. Grandchildren, Ashley Stovall (Rowdy), Marc, Cecily, Dakota Dilbeck, and Caleb, Joshua, Zion Noelle Casilio; great grandchildren Dominic Christian, Charlotte Grace, and cherished family friend Tammy Sublett.

Debbie was a resilient woman whose strength came from being tested by life's unpredictability. When faced with the choice to give up or love more, she always chose love. She was a vivacious colorful woman who loved people and life's adventures. She could turn any ordinary daily occurrence into a fantastic tale worthy of any storybook. Her passion for genealogy often fueled this as she would share her family links to Ivan the Terrible, Robert the Bruce, and even Princess Diana.

She will be missed every minute of a great song or a fabulous fall morning, but her spirit lives on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Visitation will be Friday, November 30, 2018 from 6PM – 8PM at Bishop-Crites Funeral Home in Greenbrier, Arkansas.

Funeral service will be held at 2:00PM Saturday, December 1, 2018 at House of Prayer in Greenbrier, Arkansas with Brother Denny Distin officiating. Burial will follow at Pleasant Valley Cemetery in Greenbrier, Arkansas.
