“ Ellison family, we were so saddened to hear of Jesse's passing. I know how much he means to you- and to those in the community. The Ellison men bring something truly special to this world, and we are all better for it. Little Jesse, Douglas, and JP- I know how much your Daddy loves you and how proud he is of you. I am blessed to have known him, and I can't help but think of John tonight. I know that he watches over me and Justin, just like Jesse will watch over you- but what a ruckus those two will cause when they are finally reunited- healed, whole, and young again. My love to all of you, from me and the whole Houghtaling family.
