Mrs. Margie Lee Smith, age 95, of Greenbrier, went home to be with her Savior Sunday morning, April 12, 2020.

She was born May 19, 1924, in Monticello, a daughter of the late Jack and Della Bostian.

She was a member of First Baptist Church of Greenbrier for over 30 years, and served her family as a homemaker most of her life. She enjoyed reading, writing poetry, tending to her plants, watching birds, and spending valuable time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Her first devotion was to spread the gospel and share scripture with all who knew her. After that, she was an incredibly devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Margie is survived by son James (Cissy) of Greenbrier, and grandchildren James (Linda) of Aiken, South Carolina; Paul of Hanahan, South Carolina; Sherlyn (Adam) of Maumelle, and Chelsey (Justin) of Mabelvale; several great grandchildren; and one sister, Connie House of Hampton. She also leaves many other family members and friends who will sadly miss her.

She will be buried alongside her husband at Cadron Valley Cemetery in Greenbrier. Memorial services will be held at a later date.

“ Condolences to Aunt Margie’s family. I loved Aunt Margie very much. I have great memories of her and my Mom drinking coffee at the kitchen table. She was a kind soul.

I rejoice that she was able to go home to her Lord and Savior on Easter Sunday. I know she was greeted by my mother, her sister, Evelyn.

“ Gatherings of my mama’s sisters are some of my fondest memories. They loved each other so much. I remember all the letters and cards they wrote back and forth to each other. They always had such fun cooking, eating, sewing and visiting. My mom said Aunt Margie was like her second mama. Without fail Ain’t Margie sent cards and letters with poems and Bible verses. I’m so thankful she was a part of my life.

“ My heart & prayers go out to all of you. There are so many memories to share just one, but the way Margie lived out her faith, loved her family, wrote inspirational poems, and when she still could...made the BEST yeast rolls, EVER!!! She & my Mom were very close & we spent lots of time with her, Floyd, Jim & John when I was little. What a fitting day, EASTER, for Margie to go to her heavenly home. I know she will be missed but what a wonderful legacy she left for her family.
